QUIET LUXURY BROWN

As seen in our Holden, Lor, and Montecito Collections

Brown has become a new neutral in the design world. This color's earthy tone brings a sense of grounding to any room.

Holden 69CNF in Beige

Lor 69F4F in Beige/Multi

Montecito 69E6F in Beige/Rust

BOHEMIAN GEOMETRY

As seen in our Elias, Kasbah, and Holden Collections

Geometric patterns in rugs are making a comeback but this time with a nod to #BohemianStyle in soft neutrals and Aztec-inspired designs.

Karina 69G9F in Ivory/Gray

Harmon 69EJF in Gray/Multi

In the Dyer Collection, viscose's velvety touch harmonizes with a spectrum of modernity. Crafted through high temperature dyeing and the resilient Nepalese knot, these rugs flaunt abstract, distressed designs in a daring palette of gray, red, orange, and ivory. Each piece embodies an eclectic fusion of comfort and vivid expression, designed for the contemporary connoisseur.

The pleasing melange of tonality and sheen is primarily what draws you in...then a beautiful arrangement of rustic Persian elements emerge. Employing a somewhat pointillistic approach, Caldwell takes an adept use of weaving to simultaneously erase, yet reveal the pattern existing within the skillfully-placed light and dark yarn systems. Point-by-point with warp and weft , Caldwell is a studied complexity that makes for effortless home design.
